THE COMMONER 1941

Published by the Classes of 1941 and 1942

William Jennings Bryan University

Dayton, Tennessee

---

FOREWORD

The 1941 staff offers a new edition of the COMMONER. Its theme—Magic Casements, affording glimpses into school life; its method—to give pictorial expression to the school's activities and the people who participate; its reason—to stimulate appreciation for the past and inspiration for the future. The result is for each one to decide for himself. Though its production has cost many a headache, it affords us genuine satisfaction to present to you the 1941 year-book of Bryan University.

"That what will come and must come, shall come well."

DEDICATION . . .

"Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful of others."

To her who has given counsel to the students, planned new and varied menus, shown willingness to proffer extras, and through her efficient management has made our employment a pleasure and our dining hall a place of enjoyment—to Mrs. Herbert W. Hill we dedicate this, the ninth volume of the COMMONER.

"The highest of distinction is service to others."

... into the future

Come with me to view the highway of the future, stretching out before us. It is outlined by both the directive and the permissive will of God. We cannot tell just where, but this side of the distant future we see a gateway across the highway, and on it the words, "Till I come." Behind us a still, small voice whispers, "This is the way, walk ye in it."

This highway is paved with the promises of God, of which one particularly stands out. "Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours." Thus we are challenged to possess the best within His will. All has been purchased at the cost of the precious blood of Christ, and He goes with and before us all the way.

That there should be a larger number of students at Bryan whose influence will reach out in a larger way we know. Certain too are we that God wants material provision made for their welfare. If the Lord tarries, I see a completed memorial building and supplementary buildings, including a recreational center and homes for staff members. This, through the window of faith, is my vision. And yours . . .

Judson Rudd

President.

"Can any man have a higher notion of the rule of right and the eternal fitness of things?"

ADMINISTRATION

Though there are times when we're convinced that they live from one exam to the next, we relent of such a harsh judgment when we consider those cheerful greetings, the camaraderie on hikes, the will to hear our vexations, the counsel, the reproofs—not too harsh—and, above all, the Christian “fellowship one with another.” They're our faculty, and we like 'em.

“He is wise who can instruct us and assist us in the business of daily virtuous living.”

CLASSES

First the Seniors with that studied, worried look
Toting their tomes, declaiming as they go.
Then the Juniors, salesmen of the school
Reeking with greenbacks, masters of their trade.
Next the Soph'mores, claiming new honors
Swelling the Dean's List, swollen, their heads.
And last of all, the downed lip,
The shaven crown, the woeful nescience—the Freshmen.

*"Histories make men wise; the mathematics,

Around

Far trails await me, valleys vast and still,
Vistas undreamed-of
cañon-guarded streams,

Lowland and range, fair meadow,
flower-girt hill,
Forests enchanted, filled with magic dreams.

ORGANIZATIONS

Fifty per cent of a college education comes outside of class, a prominent educator has said. Certainly we are fortunate in the variety of extra-curricular activities available to us. New arrivals of this year have been Archery, Target Shooting and Badminton.

Better organization and closer cooperation have led to marked development in all our activities, but the future holds promise of a photographic dark room, an athletic field and a gymnasium, and a prayer room. With these we may expect to obtain greater participation and proficiency in athletics, better work in the Camera Club, and a Spirit-led zeal for souls in the all-important Christian Service Association.

My Journal

Dear Diary:

Sept. 24 - I thought my turn never would come to register as I waited for that long line of Freshmen to make first appearance in the office.

Sept. 30 - What was the hubbub in the hall today? Students flocking to the new mail boxes for letters from - who knows?

Oct. 12 - I'll never forget the change from tears to laughter - from heavy hearts to gladness, as souls were fed on living bread at the Bible Conference this week.

Nov. 25 - Spanish students learned their fortunes at the tea in the Gypsy Den - apartment of Señora Fris-en-el-Río y Señora Blanca.

Nov. 28 - Thanksgiving dinner - individuality in table decorations... praises rose to the Lord of harvest.

Dec. 9 - It looked like Christmas in the dining hall... an outstanding banquet... Dr. and Mrs. Gregg guests.

Dec. 12 - The magic of magicians! Loring Campbell kept us in suspense tonight...

Jan. 2 - Beginning of a new quarter and of Allen Eugene Fish, the fourth member of the Junior mixed quartet.

Jan. 13 - Fibers found Laurel Falls covered with ice...

Jan. 22 - No typhoid or smallpox now. We've been vaccinated.

Jan. 27 - The Economics Class found much of interest on its educational tour to Chattanooga.

Jan. 28 - Another evidence of God's power... money had come in for a chapel at Higgin Curve in answer to many prayers.

Feb. 14 - Dr. Holman's messages have made the power of the Holy Spirit more real to us.

Feb. 14 - Candy hearts for a lady... an evening filled with fun.

Feb. 17 - The book of Exodus hard to understand? Not since Dr. Van Gordon presented to us the types of the Tabernacle.

March 3 - Station WDEF presenting Bryan University Choir.

March 19 - Bryan's birthday... formal dinner... debate - Cumberland University vs. Bryan... pictures of the Kentucky Mountain Mission.

March 21 - Buzzard's Point conquered again by weary travelers...

March 28 - A man of faith, Dr. Langmade, led us into a closer walk with God through his chapel talks.

March 31 - It sounded like a foreign country in the Pyrip apartment today. French students had met for tea.

April 9, 10 - Two more days of spirited cooperation in transforming our campus, with a campfire fellowship as the climax.

April 12 - No more Annual Staff meetings? Why, no! The Commoner has gone to press.

April 16, 17, 18 - Where were all the Sophomores these three days? Oh, yes, it's the Sophomore testing program.

April 18 - Seniors and Juniors at Reigledale Tavern in Irion, Georgia, for their banquet... theme, "National Defense."

May 9 - Scarlets and Golds competing in lively sports...

May 12 - A battle of wits in debate, spelling, speaking. To whom will the cup go this time?

June 11 - The eighth annual commencement... more graduates parting ways to go into the path God outlines for them.

PROPHECY MONTHLY

To hustling modern readers, brevity of expression is always appreciated for it never fatigues. Publications that do not waste a barrel of words to express a spoonful of thought are more and more popular. People like the downright facts in snappy sentences. Good readable type on convenient-size pages, unlittered with advertising, strongly appeal. PROPHECY MONTHLY with its rapid review of world events in the light of Biblical prophecy fills the bill. There's point and punch in every conviction-laden sentence. It's dynamic information, revelation and inspiration. More arresting truth in a little space than you can find in a month of Sundays. YOU NEED IT.

AMERICAN PROPHETIC LEAGUE, INC.
Box BB, Sta. E. R. LOS ANGELES CALIF.
